الحمدلله وكفى وسلام على عباده الذين اصطفى.

To choose a suitable name for a child has always been a matter of interest for Muslim family. Whenever a child is born, parents search for a good name for him or her. Islamic teachings have also encouraged the Muslims to select a meaningful and good name for their children. The Holy prophet ﷺ has changed the names of several persons, because they carried a bad sense.

It is reported by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه, the well-known Sahabi, that one of his sisters was named عاصية (Āṣiyah) which means 'disobedient'. The Holy Prophet ﷺ changed her name to 'Jamilah' (beautiful).

Many scientists today have admitted that the name of a person may influence his life, but the Holy Prophet ﷺ has revealed this fact to his followers 1400 years ago when he advised the Muslims to select good names for their children.

The names are also a source of identity of one's religion. Therefore, the Muslims have been naming their children after the prophets, the Sahabah (Companions of the Holy Prophet ﷺ) and the pious persons of the Islamic history. Their names have thus been reflecting their Islamic identity. Unfortunately, this aspect of our lives is being neglected by many Muslims who do not bother to pay any attention to the meaning or any other association attached to their names. In their eagerness to follow the modern trends, they some times select a name for their children which is totally meaningless or carries a bad meaning or has an un-Islamic background.

For example, the female names like 'Tahmina', 'Rubina', 'Nazli' have no meaning at all. The word 'Naaheed' means a woman whose breasts are fully developed, and it is a shame to call a woman with this name. Similarly, some Muslims girls are named as 'Naailah' which means calamity. Many boys are named as 'Parvaiz' while 'Parvaiz' was the name of a king of Persia who had torn the letter of the Holy Prophet ﷺ into pieces. It is shameful for Muslim to name his child after such an enemy of Islam. It is also seen in some Arab countries that a person is named فرعون 'Firaun' which is the Arabic title of Pharaoh, the tyrant of Egypt who persecuted the followers of Sayyidna 'Moosa' (Moses) عليه السلام, and was drowned in the sea as divine punishment.

Some names found in our community are not correct, because they are based on superstitions or on a false belief. The names like 'Gnaws Bakhsh' or 'Rasool Bakhsh' are some times adopted to indicate that this child is a gift given by a prophet or sufi. This belief may be tantamount to 'Shirk', because it is only Allah Almighty who can bless someone with a child. Nobody else has any such power.

Some times the names are abbreviated in a manner that their accurate sense is totally changed and they fall in the ambit of Shirk. For example, the compound names like 'Abdurrahman', 'Abdurrazaq', 'Abdurrabb', are often abbreviated as 'Rahman' 'Razzaq' and 'Rabb' while 'Rahman' 'Razzaq' and 'Rabb' are the holy names of Allah which are exclusive for Him alone and cannot be used for any other person. It is not permissible to call a human being with these names without a prefix of 'Abd' etc. But few people attend to this prohibition.

In short, the selection of names for the children should not be taken lightly. It may bring serious results both in this world and in the Hereafter.

However, the Muslims who are conscious of this fact need guide-book which can help them in selecting a suitable name for their children. Some brief booklets are found to serve this purpose, but a more comprehensive book was still needed, specially for the Muslims living in the Western countries.

On my request, my son Mr. Muhammad Imran Ashraf Usmani who is a graduate of Darul-'Uloom Karachi undertook this task and compiled the present guide-book to fulfill this need.

He has collected the suitable names for the Muslim boys and girls from original Arabic resources, and has explained their meanings and their associations. All the names are arranged in an alphabetical order and if some names are non-Arabic, their origin has been indicated before each. Where no such indication is found, it means that they are of Arabic origin.

This is also a good collection of the suitable names which is easy to consult. It is hoped that it will assist the English knowing Muslims in acquainting themselves with good Muslim names and their meanings. May Allah bless this effort with His approval and may make it useful for the Muslims and a source of His Pleasure in the Hereafter.

This is also the first book of my son Mr. Muhammad Imran Ashraf Usmani which reflects his literary interest. May Allah grant him a long peaceful life and make this book his first step towards a brilliant academic future and prologue to numerous greater services to Islam and Muslims.

INTRODUCTION

اَلحمد لله و كفىٰ و سلام علىٰ عباده الذين اصطفىٰ ،
اَللهم صل علىٰ سيدنا و مولانا محمد و بارك وسلم .

It is indeed a happy occasion and pleasant moment when parents are blessed with a child. However the real pleasure can be achieved and enhanced even more if the rules of Shari'ah are adhered to and all meaningless traditions, rituals and customs are abandoned, which have not been approved by the Shari'ah; Almighty Allah has commanded us to act upon all the rules which have been mentioned in the Holy Qur'an or laid down by the Holy Prophet ﷺ or practiced by the blessed companions of the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

Therefore, before embarking upon the main subject of this guide-book, I would like to give a brief account of some important rules of Shari'ah in this respect. May Almighty Allah give us all the Tawfeeq to act upon all the rules of Shari'ah..

AFTER THE BIRTH OF CHILD:

The first thing that parents should do is to give the child a Ghusl (Islamic Bath).

Then, the parents should request an Aalim or a pious person to give Azaan in the right ear and Iqaamat in the child's left-ear. It is better that this noble act of worship (Ibaadat) is undertaken by an Aalim or a pious person so that the Barakat (Blessing of Allah) can be conveyed to the infant , and in the absence of such people, this 'Ibaadat may be performed by any other Muslim.

The benefit of giving Azaan and Iqaamat is that the voice of Islam, the Greatness of Allah, the Oneness of Allah, and the message of the Holy Prophet ﷺ will reach the depth of his heart and he is likely to grow up as a practicing, obeying Muslim.((انشاءالله تعالى)

PRAYERS OF THIS BLESSED OCCASION:

It is mustahabb (better) to recite the following du'aa after the Azaan and Iqaamat:

اللهم إني أعيذها بك و ذرينها من الشيطان الرجيم

O Allah, I seek your protection for her and her descendants from the accursed Satan.

Note: For boys read: أعيذه and وذريته

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم ، قل هو الله أحد ، الله الصمد ، لم يلد و لم يولد و لم يكن له كفوا أحد

With the name of Allah , the most Beneficent, the most Merciful. Say! He is Allah, the One, Allah is one on whom depends the entire creation and He depends on no one. He begets not, nor is He begotten. And there is none akin to Him.

اللهم اجعله برا تقيا و أنبته في الإسلام نباتا حسنا

O Allah, make him pious and God-fearing and make him grow up in Islaam with an excellent growth.

For girls read:

اللهم اجعلها برا تقية و أنبتها في الإسلام نباتا حسنا

O Allah, make her pious and God-fearing and make her grow with an excellent growth.

اللهم علمه الكتاب و الحكمة و فقهه في الدين.

O Allah, teach him the Qur'an and wisdom and give him the understanding in Deen.

for girls read:

اللهم علمها الكتاب و الحكمة و فقهها في الدين.

O Allah, teach her the Qur'an and wisdom and give her the understanding in Deen.

TAHNEEK:

Tahneek means: Placing a chewed piece of morsel in the mouth of an infant, preferably dates. Honey may be an ideal substitute for it.

Since the Holy Prophet (ﷺ) made the Tahneek of two companions namely Abdullah Ibne Zubair and Abdullah Ibne Talha (رضي الله تعالى عنهما) this practice of Tahneek has become Masnoon (the practice of the Holy Prophet (ﷺ) (and like Azaan this 'Ibadah should be performed by a learned Aalim or a pious elder of the family; and in the absence of these people any male Muslim may do it.

HAIR CUTTING; AQEEQAH AND NAMING THE CHILD:

It is masnoon (preferable) to have the baby's head shaved, which is termed in Shari'ah as 'Aqeeqah (First shaving of the head) and to sacrifice an animal and to name the child on the seventh day after his birth.

After cutting the hair of the child , his removed hair should be weighed and some money equivalent to the weight of the child's hair should be given in charity (as Sadaqah) to the needy people in or out of the family: then the hair should be buried.

For the purpose of 'Aqeeqah on this occasion two sheep or two goats for a boy and one sheep or one goat for a girl should be sacrificed; and its meat can be eaten by the parents and the family or can be distributed to the poor and needy people.

It should be kept in mind that it is not mandatory to sacrifice two goats or sheep; if the parents cannot afford they can sacrifice one goat or one sheep or they can contribute 1/7th of a cow for a girl or 2/7th for a boy, if other partners are available either performing Aqeeqah of their own children or performing annual sacrifice in Zulhijjah.

It is better to recite this dua' (prayer) on the occasion of sacrifice :

اللهم هذا عقيقة فلان بدمها بدمه و لحمها بلحمه و عظمها
بعظمه و جلدها بجلده و شعرها بشعره ، اللهم اجعلها فداء
لي من النار بسم الله، الله أكبر.

KHATNAH OR CIRCUMCISION:

Khatnah (Circumcision) before the age of seven is also a Sunnah (preferable practice) in Islam. The child's health must be taken into consideration before deciding to do Khatnah.

BREAST- FEEDING:

Since the infant is an offspring of the mother, it is her moral duty to feed the child. The mother's milk is the most nutritious food for the child. The mother's milk nourishes the child physically and psychologically; it influences his character, habits and senses; it strengthens the bonds of love, affection and intimacy between mother and child. It has other countless benefits also, therefore, all other artificial methods should be given up unless mother's health or other circumstances do not allow her to breast- feed. However she should always make sure that no Haram food (prohibited in Islam) is consumed by the child.

The Dhikr and Bismillah should always be recited before the feeding.

The maximum period of breast-feeding is two years. Islam does not allow the exceeding of this period.

THE CHILD'S CLOTHING:

Muslim males are restricted from dressing themselves like women, this is why their male children should not be dressed with silk, or deep red colored clothes and they should not wear gold.

Parents should ensure that the children's dress is in an honorable and modest manner, never imitating the styles of disbelievers.

PRECAUTION AGAINST MISFORTUNE:

In order to protect the children from physical and spiritual ills and to make them immune from Satanic influence, the following dua should be recited as often as possible and be blown on the child:

أعوذ بكلمات الله التامات من شر كل شيطان و هامة و من شر

كل عين لامة.

I seek protection by the perfect words of Allah from the evil of every devil and reptile, and from the evil of every revengeful eye.

Aayatul Kursi and the four Quls may also be recited and blown on the child.

NAMING THE CHILD:

It is the infant's vested right to be honored with a good name. While choosing a name for the child, it should be remembered that names may influence the lives of a child . Here are some sayings (Ahadeeth) of the Holy Prophet ﷺ to show the importance of selecting a good and correct name:

SOME AHADITH (SAYINGS) ABOUT NAMING THE CHILD:

عن ابن عمر رضي الله عنه قال قال رسول الله أحب الأسمآء إلى الله تعالى عبدالله و عبدالرحمان . (أخرجه مسلم و الترمذي و أبو داود).

Ibn Umar (رضي الله عنه) narrates that the Holy Prophet ﷺ said: "Truly, the most loved of your names by Allah are: Abdullah and Abdur-Rahmaan."

عن وهب الجشمي قال قال رسول الله تسموا بأسمآء الأنبيآء، و أحب الأسمآء إلى الله تعالى: عبدالله و عبدالرحمن، و أصدقها حارث و همام ، و أقبحها حرب و مره (أخرجه أبوداؤد و النسائي).

It is also reported that the Holy Prophet ﷺ said: Keep the names after the Prophets ﷺ. And the most desirable names by Allah Almighty are Abdullah and Abdur-Rahmaan, the most truthful names are Haarith (planter) and Hammaam (thoughtful) and the most disliked ones are Harb (battle) and Murrah (bitter).

NAMING AFTER THE NAME OF THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ

عن ابن حشيب عن أبيه قال قال رسول الله : من تسمى باسمي يرجو بركتي غدت عليه البركة و راحت إلى يوم القيامة (كنز العمال برواية أبي نعيم).

The Holy Prophet ﷺ said:" whoever is named after me with the hope of being blessed, he will be blessed every morning and evening till the Day of qiyamah (Dooms day)."

عن أبي أمامة قال قال رسول الله من ولد له مولود ذكر فسماه محمدا حبا لي و تبركا باسمي كان هو و مولوده في الجنة. (كنز العمال برواية الرافعي).

He also said: " To whomever is born a boy and he names him Muhammad only out of love for me and for the blessings of my name , then both he (the father) and his son will be in Jannah (Paradise)."

GIVING GOOD NAMES:

عن أبي الدرداء قال قال رسول الله : إنكم تدعون يوم القيامة بأسمائكم و أسماء آبائكم ، فأحسنوا أسمائكم . (أخرجه أبو داؤد)

The Holy Prophet ﷺ said: On the Day of Qiyamah you will be called by your (own) names and the names of your fathers. Therefore give good names." (Aboo Dawood) عن أبي هريرة قال قال رسول الله حق الولد على والده أن يحسن إسمه و يزوجه إذا أدرك ، و يعلمه الكتاب. (ذكره ابو نعيم في حلية الأولياء و الديلمي في مسند الفردوس ، كنز العمال).

The Holy Prophet ﷺ said: It is the right of a child that his father should give him a good name; and when he comes of age should get him married; and he should give him the education of Qur'an."

It was the practice of the Holy Prophet ﷺ to inquire the names of persons and villages. If they were pleasant, it became apparent on his face. If not, his displeasure could be seen.

عن أبي سعيد القطان أن رسول الله قال للقحة تحلب : من يحلب هذه؟ فقام رجل، فقال له رسول الله ما إسمك ؟ فقال له الرجل : حرب . فقال له رسول الله إجلس، ثم قال: من يحلب هذه؟ فقام رجل، فقال له رسول الله ما اسمك ؟ فقال: يعيش، فقـــال لـــه رسول الله أحلب . (أخرجه الموطا)

Once the Holy Prophet ﷺ called for a person to milk a camel. One person volunteered; the Holy Prophet ﷺ said to him: What is your name? he said: "Harb". The Holy Prophet ﷺ said: Sit down and refused to accept his service because his name was "Harb"(meaning: War) which did not imply pleasantness. Then the Holy Prophet ﷺ said: Who will milk? Then the second person stood up to milk, the Holy Prophet ﷺ asked him his name; he said: Ya'eesh(يعيش: long live). The Holy Prophet ﷺ said to him: "Milk her".

The Holy Prophet ﷺ used to change bad names as the following Hadith tells us:

عن عائشة رضي الله عنها قالت : أن رسول الله كان يغير الإسم القبيح . (أخرجه الترمذي رقم: 2831)

A'aisha (رضي الله عنها) narrates that the Holy Prophet ﷺ used to change bad names.

HOW TO FIND A NAME:

The names in this book have been collected from the original Arabic sources, and have been explained with regard to their meanings and their associations. All the names are arranged in an alphabetical order and if some names are non-Arabic, their origin has been indicated before each. Where no such indication is found, it means that they are of Arabic origin.

According to the rules of transliteration, the Arabic Alphabets will be found as under:

ت under the chapter of T

ث ---------- TH

ح ---------- Ḥ

خ ---------- KH

ذ ---------- DH

ز ---------- Z

س ---------- S

ش ---------- SH

ص ---------- Ṣ

ض ----------Ḍ

ط ---------- Ṭ

ظ ---------- ZH

ع ---------- ʻA

ع ---------- ʻI

ع ---------- ʻU

غ ---------- GH

ق ---------- Q

ك ---------- K

و ---------- W

ة ---------- H

ي ---------- Y

However, for the convenience of a common reader not acquainted with this transliteration scheme, the names are arranged according to their pronunciation also. For example, the name ثابت can be found in the chapter of T (as 'Thaabit') and also in the chapter of S (as Saabit) the name ذاكر can he found in the chapter of D (as Dhaakir) as well as in the chapter of Z (as Zaakir) and so on. That is why some names may be found in more than one place.
